

2011-2012 Board Members

George Thorne

*Director, Education/Training & Government
Jobing.com*

George serves as the Director of Education / Training & Government Relations for Jobing.com – a nationwide position that covers from Florida to California for their 20+ offices.

George has more than 35 years experience in positions of increasing responsibility that include being an owner of a successful wholesale /retail business and a marketing consultant business; a human resource manager, an individual career manager and advisor; a technical and vocational instructor; a business relations trainer and coordinator; and a state-level business relations policy specialist.

Subsequent to his retirement as a senior Sergeant Major in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps, where he served 27 years, he joined the Arizona Department of Economic Security in 1992 where he served as a Veteran Representative, a trainer, Employment Service Coordinator, and as the State Business Relations Coordinator before retiring in October 2006 to join Jobing.com.

George currently is a member of numerous associations and serves on a variety boards of directors...”It offers me the opportunity to get involved in the business community both personally and professionally”. George is actively involved in the Peoria Chamber of Commerce (Board Member & has served as its President twice); the Arizona Employers’ Advisory Council (AZEAC) (Board members for the past 15 years); Sun City Elks; Life Member of the VFW and a member of the American Legion; Board Member of the Arizona Affirmative Action Association; a committee member of the Governor’s Council on Aging; Board / Founding member of the Community Reintegration Coalition; current President of the Goodwill Business Advisory Board.